

How to get to the ceremony

The ceremony will take place in a corner of the Garden of the Royal Library. We will gather in the first corner on the right side of the garden when you walk in from the garden's main entrance opposite of the Danish Parliament (Folketinget).

The easiest way to get there is to come to the entrance of Parliament from Slotsholmsgade. Then, once in the entrance area, look for the passageways to the park. There are a multiple entrances that all lead to the park.

From Slotsholmsgade, look for the arch which will lead you to the entrance of Parliament.

Once inside the Parliament's inner square, look for the passageways opposite of Parliament. There are a few of these and they all lead to the same park.

Once in the park, look for this corner. It's a small park with only four corners, so you should be able to spot our other guests.

Click here to open the exact location on Google Maps.